

NEWSBRIEF

December 5, 2012

Marlin Van Vleet named new Hawaii GM

Kapolei, Hawaii - We are very pleased to announce that Marlin Van Vleet will be joining our CPFD Hawaii team as General Manager, effective December 12, 2011.

Marlin is a proven outstanding performer with a wealth of experience serving Military Resale customers. As a Business Manager for CPFD as well as a number of successful assignments with Military Brokers and a Manufacturer Representative, Marlin is uniquely qualified to excel in his new assignment. Also, having lived much of his life in Hawaii, Marlin understands and appreciates the wonderful Hawaiian culture.

CPFD's President and CEO, Mr. Frank Pecoraro said it best, "Marlin understands Military Resale, he knows our customers and the Hawaii market and he enthusiastically shares CPFD's passion to deliver excellence for those who defend our freedoms!"

CPFD is committed to delivering outstanding customer service and the best fill rates in our Industry for our Hawaii customers. Marlin's selection as CPFD's General Manager is further evidence of our long term commitment to the Hawaii market. Please join us in welcoming Marlin Van Vleet home to Hawaii and back to the CPFD team!